SCORES HUNT

Search For Man Who Kidnapped and Murdered Fiveyear-old Dorothy Schneider

Child Snatched From Sidewalk While Mother, Block Away, Watched

Flint, Mich., Jan. 13.—The most intensive man-hunt in the history of Michigan to-day was directed toward capture of the kidnapper and slayer of five-year-old Dorothy. Schneider.

Kidnapped from under the eyes of her mother, wife of an automobile factory worker, in Mount Morris, near here yesterday, the child was taken in an automobile to the countryside not far from Mount Morris, and brutally slain. The child slayer then dissected the hody, and stuffed a portion of it under a ledge of ice bordering a creek. Some portions of the body still were missing to-day. Dorothy was hurrying home from kindergarten shortly after noon yesteday. She was snatched from the side walk a block from her home. Homother, watching for her from the porch, saw a man drag her into a automobile and then drive away.

Fair Weather Causes Level of River to Fall; Recent Rains Were Heavy

New Westminster, Jan. 13. — The change to fair weather has resulted in a lowering of the level of the Fraser River, this averting the danger of flood as a result of recent heavy rains. It is reported there has been no damage of any consequence, although considerable inconvenience was caused by water lying on portions of a number of roads. There is reported to be from one to three feet of surface water over a great portion of the Pitt Meadows and Surrey diked areas. Bruce Dixon, inspector of dikes, has gone to the Sumas diked area, in which also there is said to be a considerable depth of water.

Nova Scotians Move To Abolish Upper Chamber

Halifax, Jan. 13.—Armed with the authority furnished him by the recent decision of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council in London, Premier E. N. Rhodes has taken the first steps toward abolition of the Legislative Council of Nova Scotia. In a letter sent to the life members of the Council, the Premier requests them to send him their resignations.

The Legislative Council, the Chamber of the Nova Scotia Legisla-ture, consists of twenty-one members, the sessional indemnity being $1,000. Quebec is the only other province in Canada with a two-chamber Legisla-

After the Legislative Council has passed out of existence the law-making body of Nova Scotia will be the Legislative Assembly, as at present constituted. The Assembly is composed of forty-three members elected by popular vote in constituencies, the sessional indemnity being $1,000. The House differs little in size from the British Columbia Legislature, in which there are forty-eight members.

Alberta Government Informed of Resolutions Passed in Canadian Cities

Edmonton, Jan. 13.—Judging from the resolutions received by the Premier of Alberta and the Provincial Cabinet, there is every evidence the matter of a reduction of railway freight rates for the carrying of coal is being taken up as a hational question by councils throughout Canada.

To date twenty-three of the most important cities have unanimously adopted resolutions which call upon the Federal Government for immediate intervention in adjusting railway freight rates for coal so as to permit the carrying of Canadian coal and its sale in Canada at prices favorable to the consumers.

Just before the end he made a brief statement denying all guilt of the trades suitable to them in school and their natural tendencies can then be brought out," declared J.L. Beckwith, member of the Victoria School Board and director of the senior Chamber of Commerce, speaking before the Junior Chamber of Commerce monthly supper meeting last night.

Mr. Beckwith had as his subject "A Victoria Technical School," and gave an outline of the progress of technical education in Canada, stressing the need for a larger school in Victoria, a question which the School Board is now dealing with thoroughly.

A commission headed by Dr. James Robertson, was sent several years ago by the Canadian Government to Europe to make a study of technical education there, Mr. Beckwith said, 3x plaining something of the history of the matter. In Germany, the speaker said, technical education has been a great factor and Great Britain herself could take a lesson from that country in this regard.

Nelson displayed no emotion as he marched to the gallows in the leaded dawn faw in the wide in the space reserved for them in the jarl yard in front of the scaffold. According to his spiritual advisers, Nelson last night in his cell seemed not disturbed at the nearness of death. Rev. Father Webb and Rev. London, Jan. 13.—That the ashes of Thomas Hardy would be buried in the Poets' Corner of Westminster Abbey next Monday was considered likely today, although final arrangements had not been completed.

The question of the position of the Hardy tomb is one of space, as the corner is crowded.

Because of the crowded condition of the Abbey, the body will be cremated and the ashes buried.

It was also decided sometime ago that for hygienic reason no more bodies would be buried there.

Faith which the Provincial Government placed in the Sidney Roofing and Paper Company, when it was commencing its present large operations here, was fully vindicated this week when the enterprising Victoria concern completely repaid the loan of $100,000 extended to it by the Department of Industries.

When the company moved here from Sidney in 1919, it requested the assistance of the Department of Industries tries to get its operations under way. While the company was in its pioneer stage, entering a business new in British Columbia and faced with serious obstacles, the Government, believed it would become a permanent success under good management. In that belief it financed it to the extent of $100,000, one of the largest loans extended under the Department of Industries, which was founded after the war to stimulate industrial activity in this Province.

From the beginning the roofing and paper company carried the loan without default and whittled down the principal. This week it paid back the last dollar owing to the Province, following its success in building up on the Industrial Reserve here one of the most important industries of Vancouver Island.

Vancouver, Jan. 13.—Alberta wheat growers prefer the British Columbia coast route for their export grain despite the fact that there are buyers in the field who are willing to pay a premium equal to the amount saved by the western route, in order to book it for shipment east.

This is the statement of Milton C. Robinson, owner and operator of an 800-acre wheat farm at Cowley, Alberta, who is spending the Winter in Vancouver.

"Alberta farmers are enthusiastic about the western route," says Mr. Robinson. "The premium paid on wheat shipped west amounts to only a few cents a bushel, but it constitutes a clear saving over the rates which formerly prevailed.

DENIED GUILT

In an interview with a reporter last evening, Nelson protested his inno-cence in the most solemn terms, declaring that "God in His own good time would disclose the guilty parties to the eyes of the world." He asked his interviewer to proclaim to the people of Canada and the United States that he was the victim of circumstances, and at no time in his life had he committed murder

"Before God and man I am entirely innocent. I am ready to meet my God, who I am sure will-have pity on me for all I have suffered," he declared.

"Please don't change a word I have told you," he pleaded. "I ask this as a favor, so the people who are bitter against me may know I have done them no nipury."

woods officers found the mutilated body.

CORONER'S REPORT

Coroner Brasis, who conducted an inquiry, said indications were that the child had died of a stab wount to the heart and that the body had been dissected after death. He expressed the opinion the deed was the work of a maniac.

The fugitive was described as about 5 feet 10 inches in height, of light complexion, and slender. He was wearing a light suit and dark overchat.

He was said to be about fifty years of age.

Chief of Police Scarvada enlisted the aid of state troops, who threw a cordon several hundred miles in circumference. Every highway and side artery in this section was under rigid patrol within an hour after the discovery of the body, while possemen scoured the inner terrain.

Mr. and Mrs. Schnieder are prostrated. The couple, in modest circumstances, have one other child, Kenneth, three years old.

Winnipeg, Jan. 13 —William O. IDENTIFICATION EVIDENCE

In discussing the watch, McConnell told of a man who had viisted a Philadelphia store on the afternoon of the crime and offered the proprietress, Mrs. Kuhn, the watch for $60. Mrs. Kuhn, said McConnell, on seeing the first police photographs of Nelson, positively identified them as the likeness of the man who had tried to sell her the watch, but remarked on his being thinner and the lack of curly hair. She requested new pictures, and from a number picked Nelson's photograph without hesitation.

Another Philadelphia person had no doubt as to Nelson's identification as being the man who had engaged a room at the Boston Hotel in the early morning of April 27 or 28 was the clerk, Mr. Lord, who on seeing the picture in a newspaper, said McConnell, declared it was Nelson.

Mr. Pattullo explained to-day that the Legislature was the proper body to receive the report of Major Swan, who completed an exhaustive inquiry into the irrigation problem this year. The minister said he had received the report, but had not had time to digest it yet. By the time the House met, he intimated, he would have considered it in detail and would be in a position to advise the Assembly on the commissioner's recommendations.

"Swan report is a voluminous do nent covering every phase of the irrigation inquiry. The commissioner had wide powers of investigation into the water charges levied on the Okanagan irrigations and into the Government's handling of these matters.

WE NEED A TECHNICAL SCHOOL

SCHOOLBOARD CHAIRMAN GEORGE lay told the Rotary Club yesterday why a technical school should be established in this city to serve southern end of Vancouver Island. The limit of accommodation for students at the High School had been reached and it was essential that the Board of School Trustees make arrangements to meet still further expansion. He reminded his audience that at the present time 217 pupils from Saanich were attending the High School for whose tuition Victoria received the sum of eighty-five dollars per head. One of the three alternatives facing the Board was refusal to accept these pupils and put up with a loss of nearly $18,000 a year; but he recognized that this would be too harsh on the neighboring municipality and not good business for the city. The second alternative was to build another High School which would have to be paid for by the city entirely, since no grants would be forthcoming from the Department of Education. The third alternative was the erection of a technical school to meet the needs of Greater Victoria and the southern end of Vancouver Island. In this case the provincial Government would contribute forty per cent. of the cost of construction and make a liberal grant towards the equipment of the in-

Obviously the way out of the dilemma facing the Board of School Trustees is the erection of a technical school.

The conditions which Schoolboard Chairman Jay explained to the Rotary Club demand it and it would be a first-class investment in every sense of the term. It would furnish a profitable avenue of escape for those pupils who display an adaptability for such technical training as the curriculum of the High School can not provide. Much effort and time often are wasted by many pupils on subjects, the study of which is of little practical use to them. But if their energy could be directed according to their inclinations, they would be able to apply knowledge already gained to the best advantage. The technical school, with its equipment for instruction in so many practical branches of work, would meet the situation. In fact, technical training on the broadest possible lines should be considered not as an addition to, but a part of, the educational system of the Province. The operation of a technical school is good business.

A CHANGE OF VENUE

IN ONE RESPECT LORD CUSHENDEN'S announcement that the fate of the British Empire will be decided in the next election in the Old Country will be found to be somewhat entertaining in Canada. It is a refreshing variation of a theme with which Canadians have been familiar for the last hundred years. There have been few elections in which Canadian electors have not been told by somebody that on the result of their vote depended the fate of the British Empire. Indeed, this has become a cherished legend with the Conservative Party of Canada. No doubt, the Empire's fate has been similarly decided in the other overseas Dominions, for every political party which has nothing very much in the way of policy to offer usually falls back upon this ancient prize buga-We question, however, if the Empire has hung in the balance in this way anywhere else as long and often as it has in Canada, and it is interesting to learn that it is going to be "saved" abroad this time. When we reflect upon the scores of elections in which the "fate of the Empire" has been manufactured into an issue and the blithesome virility that same Empire continues to show after all these "crises," we must come to the conclusion that it is a pretty hardy growth. We may take it for granted that another such experience, this time in the Old Country, will not cause it to turn a solitary hair.

THE WRONG WAY

AT A MEETING HELD IN THE REX Theatre in Esquimalt last night Mr. John Dean is reported to have made this statement: "In a broad way I have made up my mind that the shortest cut" to give relief to taxpayers in this city-"is to reduce the cost of education."

Mr. Dean is on the wrong track. There is more than one short cut to taxation relief in the city of Victoria. One is the encouragement of local capital to invest, which, when it has invested, should be given fair treatment. Another is by way of a vigorous advertising campaign to bring people here. Another is by the display of a co-operative spirit on the part of all our citizens. Still another way is for the people of this Province to save some of the $25,000,000 a year they at present are spending on booze and the race track; the total cost of education in British Columbia is a little more than one-third of that sum.

We need more people to help us to meet our obligations. One of the first questions a prospective resident with a family asks nearly always has to do with educational facilities. Let it be known that we propose to cut our annual school bill and we shall be advertising a backward move to the outside world.

MR. BALDWIN LOSES ANOTHER SEAT

A NOTHER CONSERVATIVE SEAT IN Great Britain has been captured by the Opposition forces. This time it is in Northampton, at time represented by Miss Margaret Bondfield and afterwards by the late General Holland, the former a Laborite and the latter a Conservative. Now it has gone back into the Labor column.

Colonel Malone headed the poll with 15,173 votes, Captain Renton, the Conservative, came next with 14,616, Mr. C. Morgan, the Liberal, with 9,584, and an Independent Conservative with 1093. In the general election of 1924 the Conservative winner polled 16,017 votes, the Laborite 15,040, and the Liberal 9,438. It thus will be seen that, while 25,203 votes were really cast against the successful candidate, there still is an anti-Conservative majority of 9,040 compared with 8,465 when the Conservative won the seat. In this contest, however, both Liberals and Laborites increased their totals. while the Tory vote combined was 303 votes less than the Conservative candidate polled in the general election of 1924.

The Northampton division, of course, is essentially an industrial one and is traditionally Liberal. The Conservatives captured it in the "red" election of 1924; in 1923, however, when the issue was Imperial Preference, the anti-tariff forces piled up a combined majority of 15,378.

CANADA GOING STRONG

THE FIRST FULL WEEK OF BANKING business in Canada this year shows that in twentyeight out of the thirty reporting cities there was a considerable increase in the clearings over the corresponding week of last year. In the six cities of Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Calgary, Vancouver, and Victoria alone the combined increase totals more than $130,000,000.

This increase in Canadian banking business all across the country is an encouraging sign for this year. It shows that economic conditions are sound, that industry as a whole is in a healthy condition. The returns in themselves are an excellent advertisement to the outside investor and the prospective settler.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

A PLEDGE AGAINST WAR

It is hard to understand why any man or any It is nard to understand why any man or any author should look with coldness or suspicion upon the latest peace proposal from the United States. In effect, the United States says it stands willing to make a pact of perpetual peace with any other nation. War a pact of perpetual peace with any other nation. War is to be renounced as an instrument of national policy between the contracting parties. If there is a dispute between them, they are sworn to settle it by discussion and agreement, and not to resort to arms. The United States suggests that the same nations with which it makes this covenant against war may make it with each other.

There is only one thing proper to do with an offer There is only one thing proper to do with an offer this, and that is to accept it. If you want friendship with a man, and he offers it, you must accept it. It may not do any good to accept—that depends something upon the spirit of acceptance, something upon the incalculable future. It can not conceivably do any harm to accept—that is the point—but it will very certainly do harm to refuse. If you refuse the proffered hand of friendship, you can not tell with what gesture it will be offered you again.

Seven Deadly Virtues

By GLENN FRANK Former editor of the Century Magazin (Copyright)

The most dangerous vices are mismanaged virtues. The corruption of the best is the worst corruption. Halford Luccock, in a stimulating volume of essays called "The East Window," lists seven virtues that easily degenerate into vice. The list is worth pondering.

First, patience. Pure patience is a virtue that is almost divine. Percented patience is a circular Much that parades itself as patience is a merely lazy yielding to things-as-they-are, an easy toleration of things that should be resisted, a product either of ignorance or of indifference.

Second, loyalty. Pure loyalty is a virtue that is almost divine. Perverted loyalty is deadly. Much that parades itself as loyalty is only a lazy unwillingness to criticize old things or create new ones, a fanatic clinging to accidental or incidental aspects of things while the heart of the matter is lost, a shouting for outworn labels.

Third, patriotism. Pure patriotism is a virtue that is almost divine. Perverted patriotism is deadly. Much that parades itself as patriotism is only an attempt to mobilize mob emotion in support of some personal privilege or group interest, a device for slandering men who differ from us on political, social, or economic policies.

Fourth, thrift. Pure thrift is a virtue that is almost divine in its economy of spirit and means for worthy ends. Perverted thrift is deadly, a thing that freezes all that is generous and great in the human spirit.

Fifth, zeal, pure zeal is a virtue that is almost divine when it is the dynamic power of creative enterprises. Perverted zeal is deadly when it becomes the fanatic promoter of non-essentials.

Sixth order. Pure love of order is a virtue that is almost divine. Perverted love of order is deadly, for it is likely to frown upon the inevitable disorder of growth new things are always a bit messy in the beginning There is an order of progress and an orderliness of death.

Seventh, plety. Pure plety is a virtue that is almost divine. Perverted plety is deadly when it becomes self-centred, for there is something better than being good—being good for something.

The merely plous man watches his vices.

The wise man watches his virtues lest they become

ESQUIMALT ELECTION

To the Editor.—Mr. Milne said in Ward Six, Keating, Thursday night, that many hersops living near the the releasement of the releasement. In the mere year will be of interest to the releasement in the releasement in the releasement in the releasement. Ward Six, Keating, Thursday hight, that many persons living near the city do so only for cheaper taxation. Don't you think, Mr. Mine, that it is more honorable to live in the small homes on the borders of the city and pay taxes (as they have not all made money out of natural gas) and give them a place which they can call home? For it is impossible for a laboring man in the part time, which most of them get these days, to be for the betterment of Esquimatt or for the benefit of a coterie of individuals, who are apparently out to control Esquimait with the help of the outside and service votes. The service vote this year, I understand, is larger than it has ever been, and, as we know, not a red cent do we get, either from the Government or themselves, unless they own property, and they enjoy all the public utilities the same as a ratepayer, even to the school education which, in some provinces of Canada, they would have to pay for.

They are intelligent men as a rule, but it is a well-known fact that in the previous years they have not been induced to vote for anyone simply in day view of the fact that he was a very desirable man to have on the council. The great majority of them do not care one lota who is on the council. The great majority of them do not care one lota who is on the council. As a ratepayer, I am going to appeal ha is given to them free of cost—a privilege that we ratepayers have to pay for.

mot of so pronounced a nature as we have here.

May I suggest that during the next year the ratepayers keep their eyes peeled on the following matters: Service votes: dangerous condition on our roads during the tourist season; police protection during tourist season. We also should watch this election so as to be prepared for the gigantic effort for a "comeback" in January, 1929. We have been the goats for years. It is fine to think for durselves, and if we cannot do that the sooner we pray for Victoria to do it for us the better.

URBAN VERSUS RURAL SAANICH

To the Editor:—Oh, these rural Samaritans of the farm and the terrible urban pirates! Well, Mr. Editor, I am one of those who have robbed the poor of a most successful year, added to many years of excellent work the history of this church has known. The spring prices varying from $10 to $1.200 each, and some of them I have paid taxes for fifteen years before I sold them for prices varying from $10 to $50 each, and some of them I hold yet and will sell to any farmer for half, of their assessed value.

The taxes on my home for the year have been nearly doubled and I am no nearer to a hydrant, a street light or a sifdewalk than many a so-called farmer five miles out of town.

He has his grievances, so have we, but the partnership nevertheless has not worked out too bad for either; perhaps a little more toleration and a little less "tannerism" would be good for both.

Let's see one of those big broad-minded farmers, who understand all sections of Saanich, standforth for reeve in 1929 and it will be surprising the support he will get from Wards Two, Four and Seven.

nome, which is mussy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, for only 75 cents. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tel that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge of soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by and draw this through your hair, tak-ing one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Reeve James Eirick has called a meeting of candidates for office in Esquimait to-night at 8 d'clock at Burtallor and the platform has been invited all the councillors who sat with him during 1927. Reeve Eirick announced less inght that he had made his campaign headquarters at the corner of Admiral's and Esquimait Roads, Telephone 1487, although he himself has been elected to office for a second term by acclamation.

F. Napier Denison, director of the Meteorological Observatory, gave a very interesting talk at the monthly meeting of the Oak Bay United Church wen's Club on Tuesday, describing the committee and chairman of the transportation committee above the structure of the Schwengers and chairman of the transportation committee above the structure of the school board's two vacancies.

At the annual congregational meeting of the Esquimait United Church last evening, the attendance was excellent. The reports of the various branches of the last year's work in church and Sunday school were emining satisfactory, and witnessed a fine spirit of devotion on the part of the many workers. The officers of the last year were warmly thanked for their services and unanimously re-elected. Some time was spent in the discussion of matters pertaining to the progress and prosperity of the church and its work. At the conclusion of the business a social hour was spent during which the ladies served tea and refreahments. yesterday of his mother, Mrs W. Peck.

services and unanimously re-elected. Some time was spent in the discussion of matters pertaining to the progress and prosperity of the church and its work. At the conclusion of the business a social hour was spent during which the ladies served tea and refreshments.

The Women's Progressive Conservative Club held a meeting last evening at 9 Haynes Apartments, Mrs. W. Randall in the chair. The president regretted that owing to sickness and business she had been unable to call a meeting earlier. It was most interesting to note when reviewing the work of the club since its inception that the members had been able to assist several characteristics. The president thanked the members for their co-operation and members for their co-operation and support during her seven years' term support during her seven years' term to find the club Mrs. Randall said she from the club Mrs. Randall said came to the coast with her husband Westminster. The funeral will be held to-morrow.

Council This Afternoon to Re-consider Water Charge

Proposed

The City Council will this afternoon hold a special meeting to pass the trades license by-law, and Acting Mayor Marchant has seized the opportunity to reopen consideration of the application of the Gorge Vale Golf Club for concessions in water charges. The officers of the golf club have been invited to appear before the council at 4 o'clock this afternoon and present their case for lower rates. The water committee held a meeting at 2-30 o'clock this afternoon to discuss all aspects of the problem and examine closely the scale of charges for water supplied the Colwood, Uplands and Macaulay and Oak Bay golf clubs.

The Gorge Vale Club has protested the city's proposal to charge a rate of four cents per 100 cubic feet, practically the same rate charged Saanich municipality for resule at a profit. The club points out that Victoria capital is being invested in the project to the extent of $130,000, and that the new course will be an important factor in retaining well-to-do visitors in Victoria for much longer periods than their would otherwise remain.

he said.

Changes in the water rate had brought the user of more than 500 cubic feet and up to 3,000 cubic feet to a position where he was paying more than ever before for water.

What his association wanted, said Mr. Leighton, was for the city to allow a 50 per cent discount on garden water, taking as a basis the excess of water used by a householder in the Winter months.

He did not wish to see the separate meter system followed, for it would mean in many cases the tearing up of sidewalks and such things, which would involve much expense.

F. M. Preston, city engineer, told the directors he would answer any questions put to him, but that otherwise he had nothing to say.

Alderman H. O. Litchfield was called

TO PLEASE MAJORITY
Alderman H. O. Litchfield was called upon. The principle which had to be remembered was that the water department should be made to pay for itself, said Alderman Litchfield. The water system was for Victoria tax-payers and they should have the best service possible without an increase of the mill rate being made necessary. After careful examination, said Alderman. Litchfield, he found that the average citizen home-owner paid under the old system about $19, he now paid only about $18. The majority benefited under the new scheme, he said.

The system was only being tried out, said Alderman Litchfield, and he had reason to believe that before the year was ended everyone of Victoria's citizens would have received some reduction in water rates.

"If a man has a garden and is confronted with the possibility of being unable to keep it looking bright and beautiful, we others should be ready to help pay for it." said J. O. Cameron. "The man who has a garden has a right to some little concession." he added.

The directors endorsed the Gardeners' Association in its plea for cheaper water.

playing at the Dominion Theatre. Chaney plays a strange, half-animal Russian peasant in the new picture, a graphic romance of the Russian revolution directed by Benjamin Christensen, the noted Dayish director of "The Devil's Circus," in which Norma Shearer was starred.

Ricardo Cortex has a featured role in the new Chaney picture, and heads a cast that includes Barbara Bedford, Charles Puffy, Mack Swain, Emily Fitzroy and Kai Schmidt. These players have been directed by Christensen with such uncanny skill that they seem to be living their roles rather than acting them. The film abounds in tense situations and has been, produced on an elaborate scale, with the result that the picture is infinitely well worth seeing. Lon Chaney fans in particular will find entertainment vastit to their liking in "Mockery," Chaney having found in this picture one of the most vivid and dramatic roles in his career.

All Finances in Good Shape Annual Report Shows Alberni, Jan. 13.—The city of Alberni

Alberni, Jan. 13.—The city of Alberni finished the year with a satisfactory cash balance, it was reported at the annual meeting of the Alberni City Council, was held in All Saint's Church Hall Tuesday night, before a father small audience. A. W. Neill, M.P., was elected to the chair by the meeting. Alderman Clegg as chairman of the finance committee, reported that the city had a cash balance of $2.921.78 to carry over for the current year. Also that the sinking funds were all maintained in good order, and that they showed a surplus of $600, besides they had in addition a potential surplus between par value and the book value of the securities of $637.95. The gross debenture debt is $43,900 and the city has on hand cash and securities of $25.251, leaving a total indebtedness of $18,646. The majority of these securities mature in December, 1933 and this 1924. securities of $25.201, leaving a total indebtedness of $18.648. The majority of these securities mature in December, 1933, and July, 1934. All tax collections have shown an increase for the past two, years. This applies particularly to arrears, which show an increase of $400 collected over 1926. Alderman Forrest, as chairman of the water works committee, gave a clear and comprehensive report of the work done during the past year, stating that the system had been keeping up in good shape, and outlining the programme of work that would have to be done, such as raising the dam, etc. On behalf of the fire committee he reported two fires during the year. In the absence of Alderman Richardson, chairman of the decrease of consumption in light, totaling about 11,000 killowatts over 1926. Alderman Prost, chairman of public works, reported that there had been considerable expenditure on the roads and streets, and that the cost to the city of ashphaiting the Primary and Secondary Highways was $633, the balance Leing paid by the Government. In land sales some fifteen parcels had been sold, which at the present rate of assessment and taxation would bring in $190 more in taxes this year. Reports of the School Board showed an expenditure of $7.353 for the year. After the reports of the year had been submitted the mayor gave a comprehensive resume of work done in the city and spoke in a very optimistic manner of the Odds and Ends Concert Party was held at the home.

A reunion of the Odds and Ends Concert Party was held at the home of G. C. Roff on Tuesday night in or G. C. Roff on Tuesday night in honor of Rev. G. A. CAPITALS ARE EAGER TO GET AT MONARCHS

Great Excitement Over Amateur Hockey Game at Arena To-night

Record Crowd Will See Stellar Play; New Players to Perform

There is plenty of excitement in town to-day over the ap-proach of the great struggle at he Arena to-night between the Monarchs, regarded as the best hockey team on the Mainland, and the Victoria Hockey Club. The game is scheduled to start at 8,30 o'clock and a record attendance is expected.

The Victoria team is in first-class fettle-for the fight. Their victory over Ex-King George on Friday last and their spectacular fight in Portland over the week-end have given them the necessary zip and pep to tackle anything that goes on skates.

GOING GOOD

"They're' sure going good now," is the way Jocko Anderson, head coach, speaks of the Victoria team. "We've got twelve men now and the fans are going to see some first-class hockey to-night. We are going out determined to beat the Monarchs. We know they are tough birds and will take a lot of stopping but we'll be after them all the way."

The Capitals will trot out two new men for review this evening. In nearly every game the Capitals have had a new face. The two men who will disport themselves to-night for the first time will probably be better than anything else shown to the fans this season. Osle Osmundsen is an ace-high centre ice man and Walker Taylor is a crafty right-winger. Neither these players will start but they will see plenty of service.

Weakened City Team to Tackle Esquimalt: Juvenile and Junior Games Carded

As semi-finals of the Milton Cup knockout series, two soccer games will be played to-morrow afternoon. At the Royal Athletic Park the Saanich Thistles, winners of the First Division this season, will tangle with the Victoria Wests, with Fred Oliver as referee. At Beacon Hill Victoria City and Esquimalt will be seen in action, with Percy Payne handling the whistle. Both games will start at 2.45 o'clock and large crowds are expected. WESTS ARE STRONG

WESTS ARE STRONG
Keen competition should feature both matches as three of the clubs are pretty evenly matched and the other, the City, may surprise. After an unsuccessful start this season the Wests have strengthened their club to the point where they must be reckoned as serious contenders for further soccer honors in the city this year. Some weeks ago they startled local fans by sending Esquimait down to defeat, in a Combination Cup game.

The Saanich Thisties, who have carried everything before them this season, will trot out their usual fast-stepping eleven and are sure to give a good account of themselves.

At Beacon Hill Esquimait will meet a somewhat weakened city team as the latter have three players. Cameron, Bob Proston and George Preston under suspension. They promise to find players to fill their shoes. The Dockers, with the addition of Sandy Spiers to their half-back line, are stronger than ever.

NOT SO TALKATIVE NOW

In the past Sharkey always talked a lot before a fight. He was a most loquactous reliew. But since New Year's Day he has changed into a tight-tongued youngster and has little to say. He has hardly said a word about his fight to-night with Tom Heeney, the New Zealander, at New York. Whether Sharkey's fighting ability has slipped as much as his chatter will be known to-night. It is said by some critics that Sharkey has suffered a lot from the punishment he took from Dempsey least Supress.

Pirates and Bays Meet; Inter- CHARITY BOXING TOURNEY WILL BE STAGED TO-MORROW

Interest in to-morrow's rugby centres around the battle between the 16th Canadian Scottish and the United Services which will be staged at the Willows starting at 3 o'clock. In the other senior game the J.B.A.A. will tackle the Pirates at the Victoria High School grounds.

The winner of the Scottish-Services tussle will take the honors for the first half of the league schedule. At present these clubs are tied, each having lost one game, the Scottish being beaten by the Bays while the Services fell before the Scottish. With one victory over their opponents the Scott look forward to another win which will give the first half of the league and place in the play-off for the city, title.

BAYS ARE OUT OF IT

For their first year in senior rugby the Scottish are making a splendid showing and are to be compilimented on their fine play.

The outstanding feature of the senior league this year is the fact that the Bays, holders of the Barnard Cup for the past eight years, are completely out of the running so far. They will have to make a far better showing in the second half of the schedule if they hope to retain their laurels.

The Scottish will be without the services of Reg. Wenman, their star five-eighths, who is out of the game with a torn muscle.

The Services have a very fine team this year and are in good condition to give the Scottish the battle of their lives. There will not likely be more than a few points either way. Interest in the game is very keen.

Two games will be played to-morrow afternoon in the intermediate league. These are the opening matches in the second half of the schedule.

The programme is as follows:

Brentwood College versus Oak Bay Wanderers. Cranmore Road.

University School versus Canadian Vancouver, Jan. 13.—Major J. C. Goodsell, who lost his world's professional sculling championship to Bert Barry on Burrard Inlet December 26, and who plans to challenge for a match for the championship, has called off his proposed camping trip to Vancouver Island and instead will leave shortly for a two-months stay in Arizona.

TO-DAY'S BOND MARKE New York, Jan. 13.—The bon market continued to mark time to day. Establishment of a new hig record for federal reserve brokers loan yesterday caused further nervousnes over the probable trend of mone market and many traders were disposed to hold their commitments to posed to hold their commitments of minimum pending developments.

New offerings for the week will materially exceed the $100,000,000 mark, but the volume will hardly be greatenough to create any danger of conjection and the competition to the market for listed bonds has been nominal. Moderate activity was displayed by Missouri Pacific 5s around 103%.

was one of the strong features on the Vancouver Stock Exchange to-day, closing up at 27½-29, with a volume of buying orders for the stock at current levels.

Premier is very strong in Toronto and New York and closed firm here at 232-234. George Copper was higher again at 79-81.

Whitewater was a soft spot in the market, dropping twelve points from yesterday to close at 202-203.

from yesterday to close at 202-203.

Friday, the 13th, proved unlucky only for those who were short of stocks, or who had postponed buying a few days ago when they might have got their orders filled lower.

The big bulk of the money to-day went into Goldenda and George Copper.

The buying in Golconda was very heavy and the stock moved up to sell at a new high of 81 and closed 79-85. The feeling on the exchange was that Golconda was of the move again.

George Copper sold up to 295 here, after heavy buying during the last few days and to-day, and closed at 295-300, which is a new high for some time.

With Coast Copper jumping around on the price mountain peaks, as it were, in Montreal, the local market was at a loss to know what to do, and no one was willing to risk bargaining in the stock one way or the other to-day.

New York, Jan. 13. (By B. C. Bond)—
President Sloan of General Motors predicts biggest first quarter company has ever had from standpoint of car sales and profits.

"I do not believe there has been any year in the history of America business where effective, constructive and able management will have as great influence on individual operating results as it will have this year."

The New York American says it is almost unanimous opinion in Wall Street that St. Paul issues present an attractive long pull speculative opportunity. Among the best appearing issues at the moment are Westinghouse Electric, National Dairy Products and Allied Chemical.

Charter will be granted in Ottawa this week to Hudson Bay Mining & Smelting Company, which will operate Film Flom mine. Charter gives company right to issue 2,500,000 no-par shares, first two million may be sold for sum not exceeding $2,000,000, remaining 500,000 shares may be sold for sum not exceeding $7,500,000.

John Raskob, chairman of General Motors, has been elected director of American International Corporation. Elisha Walker and Harry Bronner re-signed from the board to-day.

Secretary of State Kellogg is en-couraged by the decision of the Mex-ican Supreme Court regarding oil property there. He said decisions con-sidered to be more than satisfactory can oil interests.

While sil of the directors agree that the dividend rate should be raised some are in favor of jumping the rate to $7 while the more conservative members hold that $6 payment is large enough for the time being. In any event the stock will probably sell above 126 in the near future.

Pleischmann—Shows excellent resistance to selling pressure, most of the buying coming from investors who are impressed with the excellent long pull outlook. The company should show a marked increase in earnings, and is expected to soon increase regular dividend payments.

SS. PRINCE RUPERT OFFICERS PRAISED

No Blame Attached to Master or Mate in Connection With Striking of Vessel

No blame whatever for the striking of the steamer Prince Rupert on Ripple Rock, Seymour Narrows, on August 22, 1927; is attached to Capt. Danlei Donald or First Mate William Glesen in the finding of the Court of Inquiry, presided over by Capt. J. D. Macpherson, which sat on the case in Vancouver.

presided over by Capt. J. D. Saccherson, which sat on the case in Vancouver.

Capt. Donald was praised by the court for the excellent seamanship he displayed in handling his vessel under the circumstances. The finding of the court, released here yesterday, states the accident was not caused by wrongful act or default on the part of the master or the mate who were on the bridge at the time, and in no sense does the casualty reflect on the seamanship of these men.

The southward voyage of the Samanship of these men.

The southward voyage of the Samanship of these men.

The southward voyage of the Samanship company, is described in the annex to the report. Capt. Donald went on the bridge when the vessel was at Separation Point, three miles north of Seymour Narrows. To counteract an anticipated tide on his port bow as he rounded Maud Island, the captain starboarded his helm. The tide was met and the vessel was swung back on her course, but in the apinion of the court this factor had as much to do with her grounding as anything else.

Capt. Donald's immediate judgment that the vessel was on Ripple Rock, despite the thick fog, and his resultant maintenance of full speed to clear the rock was praised. If he had stopped the engines the vessel might have become a total loss with the tide receding quickly at the time.

Broad Street Gossip says one of the rumors advanced for the rise in Vulcan Detinning was that Continental Can was buying the stock.

Selling in St. Paul issues probably came from traders who had accumulated in anticipation of a verdict in favor of the reorganization plan and who liquidated on the theory that the good news was out.

The New York Times says that it is believed the large amount of foreign financing done in the American market in recent months has a direct bearing on the rapid increase in brokers loans.

The Duchess of Atholi will make her first sailing from Liverpool on June 1, and from Montreal June 15, followed by the Duchess of Bedford, sailing from Liverpool July 13, and from Montreal July 27. These ships are each of 20,000 gross tons; 599 feet long; seventeen-foot beam, with a speed of 17½ knots. They will have accommodation for 600 cabin, 500 tourist third, and 500 third-class passengers. Thirty-six of the cabin rooms will have private bathrooms. Electric power will be used for all controls, lifts, cooking, time-keeping, and even the heating system. Practically the whole promenade deck will be given over to public rooms. The boat deck will have wide spaces for in-the-open dancing, walking, games, with glass-enclosed observation room.

CANADA TO CHILE HIGHWAY PROPOSED

Pan-American Division of Road Builders' Association Is Formed

Cleveland, Jan. 13.—Delegates from Mexico, Chile, Peru, Colombia and the Dominican Republic this week formed a Pan-American division of the American Wilsion of the American Road Builders' Association for working out their road-building programmes on an international scale. The first great project to be undertaken through the new organization will be the construction of an international highway from Montreal, Cansda, to Valparaiso, Chile.

PRESIDENT CHOSEN

Antonio Madrazo, national highway commissioner of Mexico, was chosen president of the new organization. He is one of the foremost road building authorities in Mexico and was at one time Governor of the State of Guanajuato. Madrazo is head of Mexico's delegation to the road builders' convention, which has attracted many delegates from nine nations and Alaska. The Pan-American road organization will establish its headquarters in Washington, with Charles M. Upham, managing director of the American Association, as secretary.

Official invitations to join the Pan-American division will be sent to mational highway officials of Ecuador, Brazil, Guatemals, Nicaragua and Costo Rica. A system of international highways that would challenge the imagination of the world's greatest engineers is the plan of the Pan-American group, with all parts of nations in the western hemisphere linked in a vast network of highways. Scores of years may be required in the achievement of the project.

The international highway from Canada to Chile will extend from Montreal through Detroit, to Laredo, Texas, through Mexico City, Guatamala, Panama, Colombia, Ecuador, Peru to Valparaiso, Chile, with an arm extending into Brazil.

The Isthmian line freighter Pacific will be here to load lumber for At-lantic ports, according to advices re-ceived by King Bros., local agents.

The motorship Stemsby, loading ties at Crofton, V.I., will probably sail this afternoon for Port Sudan, King Bros., local agents report.

GRAIN SHIP CAUSES STIR IN VANCOUVER

Tries to Move up in "Grain Line"; Court Actions Will Probably Result

Vancouver. Jan. 13.—The steamer York City, whose attempt on Thursday to move from sixteenth to first place in the 'grain line" caused excitement in shipping circles, was back in her place in the stream to-day.

Thursday evening, harbor board tugnosed her out from the berth at Lapointe Pier which she had occupied without instructions from the board.

Ss. York City, it is reported, acted on instructions from the agent of the owner, J. C. Moore, in an attempt to berth and thus establish her 'lay days' and charge demurrage.

Although the vessel now meekly occupies fourteenth place in the line and will not tie again until her turn comes, her action of yesterday will probably result in a series of small court battles. The harbor board does not feel called upon to defray the cost of the tugs which pushed the ship out Thursday evening, and the Alberta Pacific Pier Corporation was placed to additional expense by being obliged to provide special accommodation of the steamahlp Kongosan Maru, which was to have taken the berth usurped by the York City.

after the countees went to Hereford to seek out the widow Mra Pinder was living in the house of an eccentric woman, a drug-taker and slightly mad. The woman had threatened to commit suicide many times, and it happened that on the morning her ladyship arrived in Hereford and made a call at the house to satisfy her curiosity about the fatal step, and when the caller walked into the room, he found her dead, with a letter on the table announcing why she had committed suicide.

"Lady Moron is a woman of infinite resource. Here, she thought, was an opportunity of removing for everaposable claimant to the Moron estate. On the table was a number of jewels and some money, which the woman had put there in her madness. Clathering these, her ladyship went into the girl's room. She guessed it was hers when she saw the photograph of william on the mantlepiece, a photograph which was afterwards left in Lois's room to discover if she knew her father. Lady Moron placed the jewels and the poison in an open box. locked it, taking away the key, and also the letter which would not only have established Mrs. Pinder's innocence, but if the part Lady Moron became public property, would also behers: That is the exclamation for what would seem at the most to be an indiscretion.

PEPS tablets give off agreeable and highly germicidal fumes that bathe the throat and breathing passages and allay soreness and inflammation and ward off dangerous colds and chills.

By treating the throat and bronchials direct, Peps are ahead of druggy mixtures. Their pleasant balsamic nature and freedom from opiates make Peps safe and ideal even for children and weak-chested old folk.

When shopping a Peps in the mouth soothes the throat and relieves that annoying and persistent cough.
